

ITINERARY PALERMO - AEOLIAN ISLANDS

ITINERARY AEOLIAN ISLANDS

DAY 1

EMBARKATION PALERMO TO CEFALU

You will embark at a beautiful Palermo to start your unforgettable trip. Cefalù has a beautiful setting, at the foot of a towering rock halfway along the north coast of Sicily. The pretty little fishing harbor and old town streets are dominated by its Norman cathedral, and a long sandy beach right below the old town has made Cefalù a popular holiday resort.

RESTAURANTS

Ristorante Le Chat Noir
La Botte
Locanda del Marinaio

DAY 2 MILAZZO

The old town centre itself is charming and retains some fine buildings and churches, while the cape is also well worth exploring, particularly the splendid Norman castle, the cavernous rock church of Sant'Antonio di Padua and the beaches of the Riviera di Ponente. Great views and sunsets are guaranteed and there are several good walking tracks.

RESTAURANTS

Doppio Gusto
Macchianera Ristorante
Quinto - Cocktail Wine Food
Marilyn La Disco

DAY 3 LIPARI

Lipari is the largest and most populated of the Aeolian Islands (Isole Eolie or Isole Lipari in Italian), a volcanic archipelago off the coast of Sicily.

Lipari reveals a rugged and typically Mediterranean landscape of low-lying macchia (dense Mediterranean shrubbery), silent, windswept highlands, precipitous cliffs and dreamy blue waters.

RESTAURANTS

- Ristorante da Filippino a Lipari
- E Pulera
- Trattoria del Vicolo
- Signum
- E Pulera
- Il Capperio

DAY 4 STROMBOLI

Nicknamed “Lighthouse of the Mediterranean” for its steady towering glow, Stromboli is one of seven volcanic islands that make up the Aeolian archipelago off Sicily’s northern coast.

There are several different tours which take visitors on a hike up the volcano to the top for a spectacular views!

RESTAURANTS

Punta Lena
L’Incontro
Osservatorio
Il Puntazzo

DAY 5 SALINA ISLAND

The green hills that sit high above the sparkling Tyrrhenian Sea. The ominous shadow of the volcano that is the island of Stromboli in the distance. The color and movement of the port.

Thanks to its freshwater springs, Salina is the greenest island of Aeolian archipelago

RESTAURANTS

Hotel Signum restaurant
La Pinnata del Monsu'
Didyme Ristorante
Ristorante Portobello
Da Alfredo
A Cannata

BEACH CLUBS

Il Ciclope

DAY 6

FILICUDI ISLAND

The coast of Filicudi is typically high and rocky, with some exceptions such as Pecorino Mari, which has a magnificent beach with pebbles

The most fascinating feature of Filicudi is its wild and unspoiled nature: the rocky terraces covered with brooms, the large rocks and the numerous caves, which liven up the coast overlooking the sea, appear hostile, wild and charming.

RESTAURANTS

La Canna
La Terrazza del Phenicusa
Da Nino sul mare
Villa La Rosa
Name
Name

DAY 7 DISEMBARKATION: PALERMO

Palermo, Italy, is one of the cities with the most history and monuments in all of Europe. Palermo is a city that combines beautiful architecture with breathtaking landscapes and enchanting views of the sea. What's more, the local food, known for its freshness and ancient roots, is famed throughout the world.

When you stroll through the streets of its historic center you will discover the true Mediterranean essence of Palermo. Perfect place to wrap up your Italian dream!

RESTAURANTS

Osteria dei Vespri
Aja Mola
A'Cuncuma
L'Ottava Nota
Gagini Restaurant
Cagliostro Ristorante

BEACH CLUBS

