- day 5 ● Oil Nut Bay

day 1.

Arrive in Tortola and set sail

As soon as you make yourself comfortable, set sail for Norman Island, the reputed inspiration for Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island. While it's rumored that its mysterious caves served as a hiding place for pirate treasure, you're more likely to find some of the best snorkeling in the British Virgin Islands.

Pro tip: Bring an underwater flashlight so you can swim deeper into the darkness and better spot large schools of colorful fish and walls patchworked with red sponge and orange cup coral. When you return to the yacht, get ready for live reggae music and dinner at Pirates Bight, a bustling restaurant set right on the beach in front of the spectacular, sparkling bay where you'll moor for the evening.

Norman Island and the Indians

In the morning, go ashore on Norman Island—where the only inhabitants you'll meet are the wild goats—to hike the trails and take in the fresh morning breeze and breathtaking views. Next, motor straight over to The Indians archipelago, a National Park and an excellent site for snorkelers and all levels of divers. There's something to please everyone here, from a thrilling underwater tunnel to a coral reef populated with eels, parrotfish, blue tang, and more.

Once you're fully rested, head over to Great Harbour on Peter Island for an exclusive night at a beautiful beachside location only accessible by boat, Oceans 7 Yacht Club Restaurant. Their festive, themed events, including pig roasts, DJ sets, and deck parties, have become popular with tourists and locals alike.

Rhone Marine Park and Cooper Island

If you only had time for one dive in the British Virgin Islands, many would argue that the RMS Rhone Marine Park should be it. After you finish breakfast on board, sail to this historic National Park built around a Royal Mail Steamer that sank during a hurricane in 1867. Remarkably, much of the ship is still intact, including decking, parts of the rigging, the steam engine, and a massive 15-foot propeller. In addition to the wreck itself, you'll see an array of exotic wildlife that has made its home in the seagrass beds and reef, such as sea turtle, octopus, barracuda, giant grouper, and moray eel.

In the early afternoon, head to Cooper Island, a dreamy, eco-friendly resort on a private island, nestled among the palm trees and tropical flowers. Spend the rest of the day chilling on the pristine beach, sampling rare aged rums, snorkeling at Cistern Point, or visiting the microbrewery.

Virgin Gorda

Your next destination is Virgin Gorda, home of the National Park and geological wonder the Baths. Created by underwater volcanic activity, this collection of towering granite boulders forms an otherworldly playground of tunnels, caves, and crystal-clear pools.

Head over to Oil Nut Bay, a luxury resort spread across 400 pristine acres on the eastern tip of Virgin Gorda. Leave your yacht in the Marina Village and make your way to Nova Restaurant for your complimentary Rum Punch Toast to celebrate your arrival. During your time at Oil Nut Bay you can take full advantage of all the amenities on property, perhaps starting with a dip and lazy poolside dinner of sushi, lobster pizza, or spicy miso wings at The Beach Club.

Oil Nut Bay, Virgin Gorda

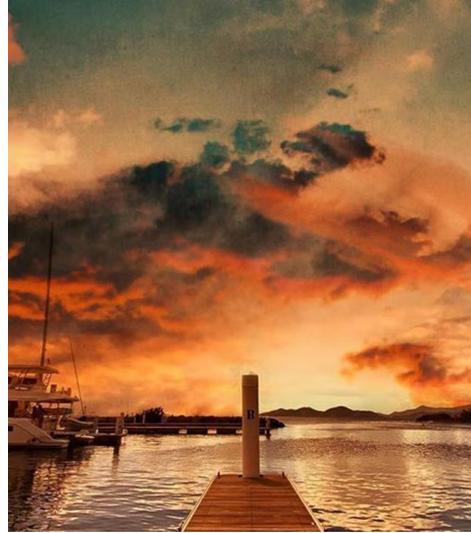

Begin your morning in Oil Nut Bay with a leisurely breakfast at The Beach Club. Built on an expansive deck that hangs out over Deep Bay, this stylish outdoor restaurant at Oil Nut Bay features overwater hammocks, sun loungers, and even a suspended swimming pool—perfect for soaking up the sun and daydreaming. Enjoy a few of the many onsite activities, including hiking any of the five trails with sweeping views, snorkeling in the surrounding reefs, kitesurfing, tennis, and complimentary yoga classes.

Scrub Island

From fishing to hiking the volcanic island's surroundings, Scrub Island offers a seemingly endless list of activities. Learn to sail with confidence at the Offshore Sailing School located in Marina Village. The school has all kinds of classes available, even two hour sailing lessons. Marina Village is where you will also find Dive BVI, in case you would like to take your island explorations to a whole new level. Courses range from the Try Scuba Diving Course, allowing first timers to test the waters with basic scuba diving techniques, to the Advanced Diver program, designed to expand your knowledge and experience with new dive situations.

Marina Trellis Bay

Enjoy your morning saying goodbye to the waters of BVI with a last snorkel or secluded beach visit before you sail back into the Marina Trellis Bay. If you have some time to spend, walk around Road Town for a little shopping and a quick bite, or visit the local art center. If you are into historical sights, check out Fort Burt. Fort Burt was built by the Dutch in the early 17th century to safeguard Road Harbour.
