Naples - Procida.

📍 11nm 🕒 55m

The Island of Procida is close in proximity to the two more popular destinations for luxury yacht - Capri and Ischia. The diminutive award to Procida does not really reflect the splendor and allure of this incredibly beautiful Italian destination. The word "Procida" comes from a Neapolitan term that literally means "soft beaches."

Procida - Ischia.

📍 5nm 🕒 30m

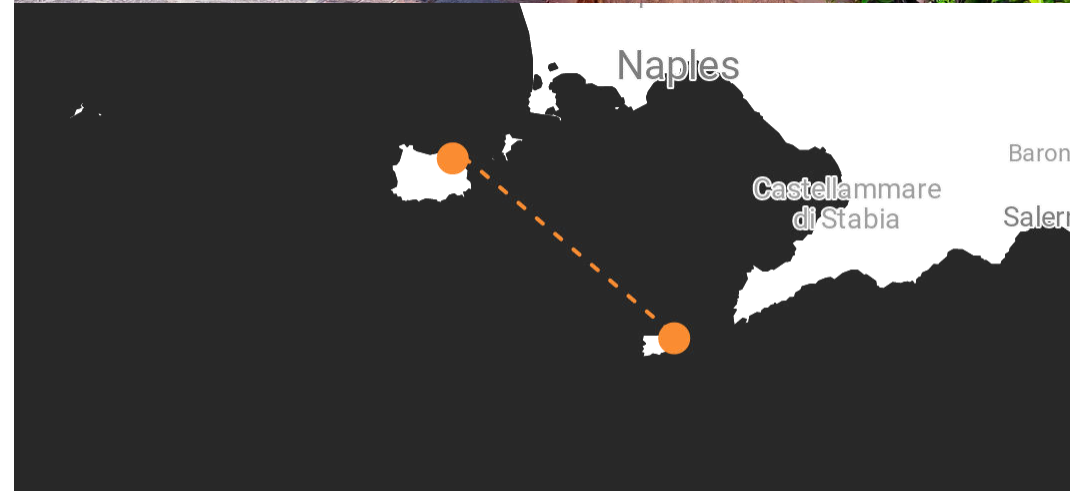

Ischia is an international tourist destination situated peacefully in the Gulf of Naples, with crystal-clear seas, untouched landscapes, cultural sites and many other surprises. Its robust shoreline is distinguished by a series of headlands, streets and beaches where sea water flows a few feet from shoreline with hot water from thermomineral springs. Indeed, the volcanic island hides a high concentration of hot springs and a wide variety of waters in its underground, which make Ischia "the capital of the Europe's thermal spa. More than 300 spa areas allow the rest of the mind and the body to regenerate. In Ischia, also called "The Green Island" it is a springtime eruption of colors and fragrances because of its numerous pine trees and lush Mediterranean vegetation. The wineries, planted on terraced grounds, give a special touch to the island's overall landscape.

Ischia - Capri.

📍 18nm 🕒 1h 35m

You don't get better than charming Capri. The graceful gem of the lemon-scented Amalfi Coast, Capri is pure poetry and worthy of a thousand sonnets. Dwarfed by soaring sea cliffs and penned in by the sparkling sea, any other small would disappear against so much drama but not Capri. Brimming with wisteria frothed villas, brightly painted buildings, gardens cloaked in kaleidoscopic colour framed by pergolas, and plump piazzas that are prime people-watching territory, Capri doesn't fail to utterly enchant. Charter guests will want to visit the famed Grotta Azzurra - this flooded cave was believed to be home to sea nymphs and magic back in Roman days thanks to its iridescent hues of unbelievable blue. The Gardens of Augustus are also worth a stroll and the Villa San Michele is sure to steal your heart. With incredible seafood on offer and divine confection, you won't go hungry in this happening summer spot.

Capri - Positano.

📍 12nm 🕒 1h 5m

Positano is a dramatic, cliffside village on the Amalfi Coast, and without doubt one of the most photographed and filmed locations in Italy. This chic retreat is a must stop on your charter.

Positano - Amalfi.

📍 6nm 🕒 35m

The scent of lemons, the vision of Pompeii in the distance, and gorgeous Italian seaside towns clinging to the 50km coastline are all why the Amalfi Coast is so special. Amalfi is sure to enchant from Sorrento to Salerno for charter guests truly seeking La Dolce Vita. On this gauzy stretch of coast, you will find incredible seafood dishes, handmade ceramics, sun-soaked piazzas, beautiful beaches, and hidden coves where you can sip crisp white wines with sparkling sea vistas and ornate churches and architecture. Must-see towns along this pearl-like string include Amalfi itself with its medieval origins, impressive cathedral, pretty port, paper museum, and its fascinating maze of alleys and passages.

Amalfi - Salerno.

📍 8nm 🕒 45m

Salerno is the gateway to the gorgeous Amalfi Coast on ancient hilly terrain that meets the sea. Salerno dates back to the fourth century and is home to Arechi Castle, which dates back to the 6th century and offers some of the best views across the bay and Salerno itself—a bustling place brimming with restaurants and nightlife, museums and monuments, and so much more, Salerno will keep you smitten with its gritty historical center, its sweeping seafront promenade, and its pure energy of a true Italian seaside city.

Salerno - Sorrento.

📍 29nm 🕒 2h 20m

For almost two centuries, Sorrento has been a popular tourist destination, perched on a plateau above the sea with breathtaking views of the Bay of Naples. The historic seaside town has learned to cope with and benefit from tourism, and in exchange, it provides a traditional 'Mediterranean summer holiday' experience - without losing its Italian character and charm.

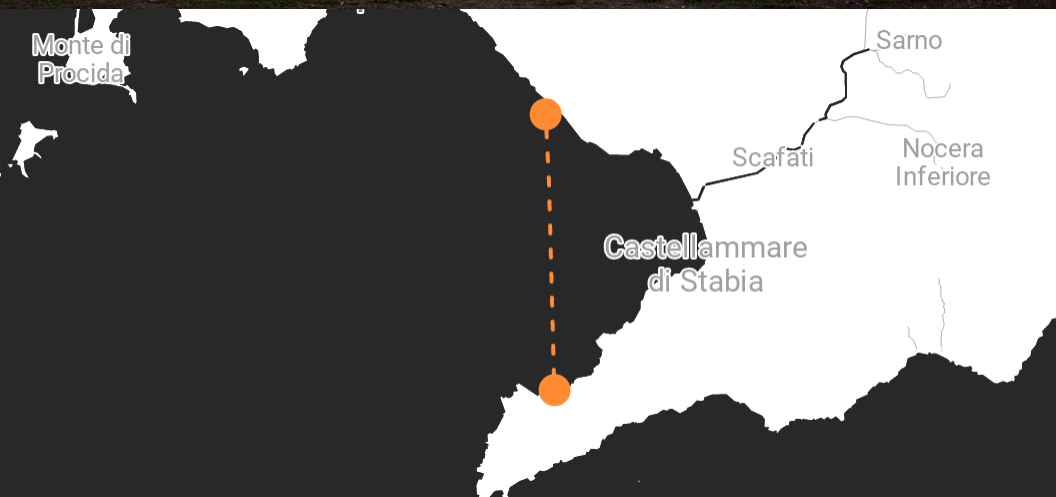

Sorrento - Pompeii.

📍 9nm 🕒 45m

Pompeii is one of the most famous sites in Italy, and the tragedy of the town buried beneath volcanic ash is widely known. After Mount Vesuvius erupted in 79 AD, it destroyed the whole region but seemingly frozen Pompeii in time. Visiting this UNESCO heritage site is essential for any charter guest sailing through these shores. Close to Napoli and the Sorrento Coast, set aside a day for wandering the haunting streets of this ancient town excavated on the southern slopes of the mountain. From the frescoes and artwork on the walls to numerous buildings depicting the civilization and their way of life, Pompeii is so much more than an outdoor museum; it's an immersive journey.

Pompeii - Naples.

📍 6nm 🕒 35m

Southern Italy's yacht charter hub, Naples is energetic and lively, but charming and beautiful at the same time. Here you'll find a proud and colourful culture and a welcoming hospitality. It is the gateway to Capri and the Amalfi Coast which are without doubt one of the most stunning coast lines in the Mediterranean. The rich history of Naples has left it with a wealth of monuments and historical buildings, from classical ruins to medieval castles and a wide range of historically and culturally significant sites including the Roman ruins of Pompeii and the Palace of Caserta. There are plenty of museums & religious sites to visit, not to mention what lies beneath Naples...catacombs, caves and ancient reservoirs. A visit here is of course not complete without a trip to Vesuvius. This city serves a cultural and historical feast for the eyes!
